

The Arizona Board of Regents' Committee on Free Expression will convene in a meeting on Aug. 7 to discuss and take action on the following agenda items: review of the statutory authorization for the committee; discussion and action regarding the statutory report; and next steps